

DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET

Devotion to the Divine Mercy of Our Lord has been spreading in recent times following a series of visions received by the Polish nun, Saint Faustina Helena Kowalska.

Faustina was born in Lodz in 1905. She died of consumption in 1938. In her short life she kept a diary in which she described her relationship with Our Lord, her confidence in the Divine Mercy and illustrated a life united with God.
